OES007	Privacy Notice (when personal data is obtained from the data subject)
Topic:	Data protection

The Company is a recruitment business which provides work-finding services to its clients and work-seekers. The Company must process personal data (including sensitive personal data) so that it can provide these services – in doing so, the Company acts as a data controller.

You may give your personal details to the Company directly, such as on an application or registration form or via our website, or we may collect them from another source such as a jobs board. The Company must have a legal basis for processing your personal data. For the purposes of providing you with work-finding services and/or information relating to roles relevant to you we will only use your personal data in accordance with the terms of the following statement.

Collection and use of personal data

Purpose of processing and legal basis

The Company will collect your personal data (which may include sensitive personal data) and will process your personal data for the purposes of providing you with work-finding services. The legal bases we rely upon to offer these services to you are:

- Consent
- Legitimate interest
- Legal obligation
- Contractual obligation

Updated 16.02.2022 Version 8

Legitimate interest

Where the Company has relied on a legitimate interest to process your personal data our legitimate interests is/are as follows:

- As an Education agency we abide by the Employment Agencies Act 1973 and the Conduct of Employment Agencies & Employment Business Regulations 2003 (“the 2003 Regulations”), who regulate the employment agency industry as a whole. We gain your personal information to be able to comply with the above Regulations, and be able to comply with the current Education safeguarding legislation. An example of this would be asking whether you are male or female; we would need to know this due to specific requests in relation to supervision within changing rooms.

Recipient/s of data

The Company will process your personal data and/or sensitive personal data with the following recipients:

Application stage

OES asks you for your personal details including name, contact details and CV. You will be asked about your previous experience, education, referees and for answers to questions relevant to the role you have applied. Our recruitment team will have access to this information.

Updated 16.02.2022 Version 8

If you are offered employment under a Contract for Services (CFS) we will ask for information to enable relevant pre-employment checks. You must successfully complete the pre-employment checks before OES can offer you work. OES are required to confirm the identity of staff, their right to work in the United Kingdom and seek assurance as to their trustworthiness, integrity and reliability.

You will also be required to do the following:

- Provide proof of your identity – you will be asked to attend OES office with original documents so copies can be taken. NB: an online registration may be offered if it is unsafe to come into OES office.
- Provide proof of your qualifications – you will be asked to attend OES office with original documents so copies can be taken.
- You will be asked to complete a criminal records declaration to declare any unspent convictions.
- You will be asked to declare whether you have previously been / or are currently under any investigation or disciplinary procedure.
- OES will discuss completing an Enhanced DBS check via the Disclosure and Barring Service, or;
- Access DBS Update Service which will verify your declaration of unspent convictions and provide supporting documentation for this.
- OES will contact your referees, using the details you provide in your application to obtain references
- You will be asked to complete a questionnaire about your health. This is to establish your fitness to work.
- Bank details – to process salary payments
- Emergency contact details – so we know who to contact in case you have an emergency at work

Assessments

OES may ask you to participate in training days; and/or to attend an interview – or a combination of these. Information will be generated by you and by OES. For example, we might take interview notes. This information is held by OES.

If you are unsuccessful following assessment for the position you have applied for, we may ask if you would like your details to be retained in our talent pool for a period of six months. If you say yes, OES would proactively contact you should any further suitable vacancies arise.

Profiling and Automated Processing

OES does not use profiling or automated processing.

Statutory/contractual requirement

Your personal data is required by law and/or a contractual requirement (e.g. our client may require this personal data), and/or a requirement necessary to enter into a contract. You are obliged to provide the personal data and if you do not the consequences of failure to provide the data are:

- OES will not be able to provide work finding services for you.

Health Management

OES will check with you annually to see if there are any changes to your Health. We do this to ensure OES records are kept up to date and because we may need to disclose this information to an education establishment if it will have an impact on the work you are able to carry out. The educational establishment themselves may do a risk assessment in accordance with their Health and Safety policy.

Access to personal information

OES tries to be as open as it can be in terms of giving people access to their personal information. Individuals can find out if OES holds any personal information by making a Subject Access Request (SAR) under the General Data Protection Regulations 2018 (GDPR). If a SAR request is made and OES hold's information about you, they will:

Updated 16.02.2022 Version 8

- give you a description of it;
- tell you why OES are holding it;
- tell you who it could be disclosed to; and
- let you have a copy of the information in an intelligible form.

To make a request to OES for any personal information we may hold about you, you will need to put the request in writing with proof of identification in the form of either passport, driving license or birth certificate, to dataprotection@outstandinged.com the postal address provided below. A SAR template which you may want to use to assist with this is available from the GDPR section of OES's website. OES will respond within 30 days to any SAR request. If you have any questions please email dataprotection@outstandinged.com or call 01432 800382.

If you agree, OES will try to deal with your request informally, for example by providing you with the specific information you need over the telephone.

If OES holds information about you, you can ask to correct any mistakes by, once again, contacting OES via email on dataprotection@outstandinged.com or call 01432 800382.

Disclosure of personal information

In many circumstances OES will not disclose personal data without consent. However, if a complaint is made there may be a need to share personal information with the organisation(s) concerned and with other relevant bodies. You can also get further information on:

- agreements OES has with other organisations for sharing information;
- circumstances where OES can pass on personal data without consent for example, to prevent and detect crime and to produce anonymised statistics;
- OES instructions to staff on how to collect, use and delete personal data; and
- how OES checks that the information held is accurate and up to date.

Data retention

OES will retain your personal data only for as long as is necessary. Different laws require OES to keep different data for different periods of time.

Updated 16.02.2022 Version 8

The Conduct of Employment Agencies and Employment Businesses Regulations 2003, require OES to keep work-seeker records for at least one year from (a) the date of their creation or (b) after the date on which we last provide you with work-finding services. Other documentation including the right to work within the UK and WTR (Working Time Records) will be kept for 2 years.

OES must also keep your payroll records, holiday pay, sick pay and pensions auto-enrolment records for as long as is legally required by HMRC and associated national minimum wage, social security and tax legislation. Financial and Pension auto-enrolment are required to be kept for 6 +1 years.

Where OES has obtained your consent to process your personal and sensitive personal data, it will be done in line with OES retention policy (available upon request to dataprotection@outstandinged.com). Upon expiry of that period OES will seek further consent from you. Where consent is not granted OES will cease to process your personal data and sensitive personal data.

Your rights

Please be aware that you have the following data protection rights:

- The right to be informed about the personal data the Company processes on you;
- The right of access to the personal data the Company processes on you;
- The right to rectification of your personal data;
- The right to erasure of your personal data in certain circumstances;
- The right to restrict processing of your personal data;
- The right to data portability in certain circumstances;
- The right to object to the processing of your personal data that was based on a public or legitimate interest;
- The right not to be subjected to automated decision making and profiling; and
- The right to withdraw consent at any time.

Where you have consented to OES processing your personal data and sensitive personal data you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time by contacting Jemma Pattison; Mortimer House, Holmer Road, Hereford, Herefordshire, HR4 9TA, Jemma@outstandinged.com, 01432 800 382, or alternatively email dataprotection@outstandinged.com.
